Crossing Delancey

by
Susan Sandler

Directed by Robert E. May

Our play is in two acts, and there will be a fifteen minute intermission between acts.

Crossing Delancey is set in the lower east side of present day Manhattan. All the action occurs in Bubbie's kitchen, in a book store, and on a park bench.

There are many Yiddish words and expressions used in this play, and we hope that their meaning will be clear from the context in which they are used.
